

Employee Value Proposition

We are boldly stepping into the future with an enviable portfolio of education brands and great people - putting us in a strong position to help “unleash potential”.

At NextEd you can:

- Have great experiences and interactions every day.
- Work with meaning and purpose and be proud of the transformative experiences we give our students and colleagues.
- Be part of something bigger.
- Shape and impact the future of education.

Have great experiences and interactions every day

- We love feedback! We regularly ask, listen and take action to improve your employee experience.
- What you experience at work matters and we seek to provide great experiences every day.
- Our culture of diversity and inclusion means that you can be your authentic self and engage with your colleagues in a respectful and meaningful way.
- Learn, grow and receive rewarding career opportunities in a supportive team environment where you feel involved and valued.

Work with meaning & purpose and be proud of the way we help our students

- Everyone at NextEd plays a vital role, positively impacting many lives every day.
- We live and breathe our values in our day-to-day work and interactions with each other: Be Bold, Be Respectful, Be Inclusive and Be Excellent.
- We enable our students to unleash their potential and achieve their personal learning ambitions.

Be part of something bigger

- Unleash your potential and explore career opportunities at our range of businesses, functions and locations.
- Feel the campus buzz and be part of the broader learning community by attending and participating in various events and functions.
- We are actively building our student and employee alumni, which includes people who were previously students now being valued NextEd employees.

Shape and impact the future of education

- We are innovative and agile and are always looking for a better way to do things.
- We actively engage with industry and government bodies and participate in forums to remain current and at the forefront of education.
- The tactical ways we adapt to changes in market movement are agile, considerate and always put our students' needs first.
- Our leading position in the industry attracts people who are talented and passionate.
